Okay Given On Moraga's Master Plan

The County Planning Commission in a swift action this week approved in total the revised master plan for the 9500 acre Moraga area.

Included in the blanket approval is the increase in controlled manufacturing area, which was requested by Utah Construction Company, owner of half the area under consideration in the revised plan.

Earlier hearings marked fiery public objections to Utah's requests for increased areas earmarked for manufacturing. At Tuesday's Planning Commission session, however, only a handful of spectators were present for the long-awaited decision.

THE ONLY MINOR revision made was to allow a "buffer zone" to separate a 100-acre controlled manufacturing tract from the surrounding area.

At press time, few comments had been heard from Orinda residents concerning the Planning Commission's approval on the master plan.

In Lafayette, however, residents were quick to express their disapproval of another controversial feature of the master plan—a Shopping Center in the Burton area. The center is also proposed by Utah.

The Glenside Improvement Association, hastily whipped up a resolution, voicing their continuing protest against the center. It read:

"The Glenside Improvement Association hereby formally voices its protest at the action of the Planning Commission on the matter of zoning that part of the Moraga Plan that has heretofore been known as the Burton Shopping Center."

The Glenside meeting followed on the heels of the Tuesday night Planning Commission approval, in the whole, of the oft-contested and long-in-the-mill Moraga Master Plan.

IN A SERIES OF previous Planning Commission hearings on the revised master plan, the proposed Burton Shopping Center and an increase in controlled manufacturing space in the Moraga area had been major points of contention.

In swift 15-minute action, the Planning Commission Tuesday approved the revised plan.

Commissioner Joseph D. DeCosta made a motion that the Burton Shopping Center be approved in the revised plan. It passed unanimously.

Utah Construction Company's request for 288 acres for controlled manufacturing space against the planning staff's recommendation for 188 acres, was also approved unanimuosly. A buffer strip for a 100-acre area of the controlled manufacturing space was provided for, however.

In a third motion, also passed unanimously, the commissioner OK'd the entire revised general plan, including residential densities shown on the existing map, and including the two disputed portions.

BOB PIERSON, GLENSIDE Improvement Association president, in a letter announcing the regular Glenside meeting Wednesday, had stated: "At that time we will have a full report on the Moraga Master Plan, and should know whether or not a shopping center will be adjoining the Glenside area."

At the conclusion of the Glenside meeting, Pierson announced that his organization is now seeking the support of other community clubs and civic groups in opposing the revised plan, as it now is, when it comes before the Board of Supervisors for approval.

Those interested in meeting with the Glenside association on the matter may call Pierson AT 4-4092, or William Dyer, AT 3-3253.

Both the controlled manufacturing space increase and the area earmarked for a future shopping center are proposals set forth by Utah Construction Company, which owns about half the land in the master plan, which was first adopted in 1955.

ONLY A FEW SPECTATORS attended Tuesday's Planning Commission action, in contrast to the crowds which appeared for earlier public hearings.

Thursday, our Glenside resident, who preferred not to have his name used, said of the Planning Commission action:

"This is strictly against the opinion of the people in the area. The Planning Commission is attempting to shove something down our throats, even though we don't want it. Their opinion, apparently, is that whether we want the shopping center or not it's good for us."

He said the only recourse now is to hope for action from the supervisors which will be in sympathy with the request of residents in the area of the proposed center.

President Stanford Allen of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce said that Chamber has not decided on any plan of action with regard to the shopping center. The center was discussed briefly at Wednesday's meeting of the Chamber's board of directors.

Billy Graham, Bing Say They'll Golf in Orinda

On Friday, May 23, the Orinda County Club fairways will resemble a combination of the P.G.A. Open, a Hollywood premier and a three-ring circus, according to Bill Houston, chairman of the second annual Doten Golf Invitational.

Among a host of "big names" tentatively slated to tee off in the event, Houston said, are Hoagy Carmichael, Forest Tucker, Dennis O'Keefe, Phil Harris, Johnny Weismuller and John Raitt.

"We didn't have much trouble," Houston explained, "getting Bing Crosby to come out. We had a little difficulty, though, luring Billy Graham out of the Cow Palace."

Both "The Groaner" and the Rev. Graham, he explained, have consented to appear in the tournament.

"All told," Houston said, "there will be more than 160 celebrities and outstanding amateur golfers participating."

He explained that though many famous figures have indicated they will appear, last-minute changes may occur through bookings and other engagements.

"Anyone who went to last year's tournament," Houston said, "will know that persons can expect to see a herd of celebrities, however."

Among prominent area golfers participating, Houston noted, will be Jay Bedsworth, Hy Hennings, Bill Higgins, Bud Shank, Art Andesren, Walter Boysen and 49er Coach Frankie Albert.

Fred Goodwin will head marshals for the event. Marshals, all golf professionals, will be Pat Patton, of Orinda Country Club, Norm Tauscher, Diablo, Dewey Longworth, Sequoia, Bill Corbet, Castlewood, and Scotty Russel, Lafayette golf instructor.

Proceeds from the invitational tournament will go to the Children's Hospital of the East Bay and to the Doten Sports Institute.

The Doten Institute was organized six years ago by a group of Bay Area businessmen for the purpose of promoting high school athletics and stimulating sports excellence among prep athletes.

Through the institute, high schools in the East Bay are given cash awards in the names of outstanding high school competitors in various sports.

Tee-off time for the tournament is 8 a.m.

Tickets are available from three area Children's Hospital representatives, Mrs. Richard David, AT 3-6019, Mrs. Wayne Welcome, YE 5-4531, and Mrs. Donald Ellis, CL 4-5601.

The Children's Hospital will receive a percentage of the receipts from gallery tickets.

Resusitator Drive Now on In Orinda

"The Orinda area is desperately in need of a resuscitator" according to Fire Marshal William Koch.

"In 1956-1957 the resuscitator was used 78 times for heart ailments, drownings, asthma, asphyxia, electric shock and poisoning and is directly responsible for saving several lives in Orinda," he continued.

The Orinda Woman's Club, with the help of the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce is hoping to make a new resuscitator possible before the swimming season, he added.

Mrs. Edmond Wilford, ways and means chairman, announces three ways the people of Orinda may contribute toward a life-saving resuscitator.

May 23 and May 24, the Dramateur's are presenting —"The Sleeping Prince" at the Berkeley Little Theatre. Profits from tickets purchased from the Orinda Woman's Club will be used for the resuscitator. Assisting her will be Mesdames: Elliott Rose, Robert Lester and Phil Mittell.

Mrs. Cal Schaeffer, aided by a group of Orinda Woman's Club members, will canvass the Village and Crossroads shopping areas, May 23 and May 24. These women will accept donations from shopping residents.

Working at the shopping centers will be Mesdames: Walter Ammon, William Van Voorhies, James Byers, Maurice Ellison, John Bannister, Edward Patterson, Myron Osmunson, Clinton Scarich, Fred Nielsen, Robert Stewart, Edward Winthers, Holland Dubois, Clifford Benjamin, Wilbur Stephens and Raymond West.

Mrs. James Byers announces several members who will hostess at neighborhood coffee parties, donations to be used for the resuscitator. Mrs. Vernon Louis, Sleepy Hollow; Mrs. Fred Nieslen, Del Rey; Mrs. F. B. Tobias, Overhill Road; Mrs. Robert Voegtly, Moraga Highway; Mrs. William Canon III, Ivy Drive area; other areas will arrange for additional coffee parties.

Fire Marshal Koch emphasized the need for another resuscitator with all the new pools, the tremendous growth in population in the last few years and most important, the time element involved.

"Luckily, there have never been two calls at the same time, for only eight minutes can elapse from 'need' to inability to use. Orinda needs a resuscitator on both sides of the crossroads to avoid serious tragedy. County funds are only able to provide one machine for each area," he said.

Orinda Woman's Club, the Orinda Junior Chamber and the Fire Department, hope the people of Orinda will contribute generously toward this worthwhile project. Miramonte High School Art Class posters will be displayed during the week to remind area residents to contribute," Koch added.

Contributions may be mailed to Mrs. John Barkley, Treasurer, 6 Irving Court, Orinda, before June 1 by residents wishing to help purchase a new resuscitator.

McCosker Crusher Approved

By a 4-1 vote this week the County Board of Supervisors approved the request of A. J. McCosker to add a rock crusher operation to his Redwood Canyon quarry operations, west of Moraga.

Supervisor Melvin Nielsen cast the dissenting vote. He urged that McCosker be required to pay for an estimate $10,000 in improvements which will be needed to improve Pinehurst Road, or post a bond guaranteeing to pay for future road damages.

The other supervisors ruled that the county usually builds roads where they are needed, or repairr existing roads to serve industry as well as residents.

Over 20 business and professional firms have already signed up for the Orinda Vacation Festival which will be celebrated June 5-6-7, according to Al Baer, chairman of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce Merchants Committee.

Governor Warns of Foreign Aid Dangers; Tours The Sun

Governor Goodwin J. Knight urged that the United States "take a careful evaluation of its foreign aid monies to insure that countries receiving the aid are friendly" yesterday morning at the Orinda Community Church before touring The Sun printing plant.

Before a standing room only audience, the candidate for United States Senate on the republican ticket, noted that "in light of the assault on the vice-president in South America and the poor publicity which resulted from the incident, the United States must carefully screen nations which claim to be friendly before allowing foreign aid to be allocated."

ON THE HOME front, Knight insisted that "many frills in education be curtailed and a solid core program take precedence in the state" and nation's schools.

He commended 10th District Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle and his assembly committee on education for the steps that committee had taken in "bettering educational standards throughout the state."

From the Orinda Community Church, Knight's party went to Paul's Place in Martinez where the governor was introduced to county officials by Melvin F. Nielsen, second district supervisor of Contra Costa.

AT PAUL'S, the governor stated "The country must be well aware by now, in light of Russia's trolley-car sized Sputnik that educational standards and the science-math fields must be intensified."

Touring the Sun printing plant were the governor and his wife, Doyle, Don Bonard of Orinda, and members of the governor's staff.

During the tour the governor commented on campaign plans with members of the Sun staff.

FOLLOWING THE tour of The Sun plant, the governor met at the home of Paul Handlery, 13 Virginia Lane, with campaign workers.

Doyle commented that the campaign is going very well,"but the governor has not been able to meet with as many constituaants as he would have liked because of his pressing duties of state."

Following Governor Knight's visit with his staff, Congressman Pat Hillings, candidate for attorney general on the republican ticket stopped at The Sun plant with his entourage.

Hillings was elected United States Representative from 25th district in 1950, the district formerly represented by Vice President Richard Nixon in Southern California.

Be A Good Citizen, A Good Parent - Vote Tuesday in Your School Election

Robert Karplus

The responsibilities of the school board may be divided into two categories, business management and education management. One should remember that the educational decisions determine the purposes which astute business management then seeks to achieve with the available resources.

In our community the public is aware that the elementary schools must prepare our students for eventual college work after high school. For this reason we have standards for teachers and for accomplishment by the students higher than the standards in many other school districts.

THE FINE REPUTATION of our teachers is a tribute to the dedication of our school administration and our present school board.

During recent months blanket denunciations of our educational system have frequently appeared in newpapers and magazines. I deplore the way in which most of these articles were written, because they have rarely contributed any constructive advice.

A lot of effort has gone into the building up of our Orinda schools above the national average. To maintain and improve this position, we must continue to develop the whole program so as to meet still better the needs of our children, but we must also be careful to retain the present accomplishments.

AS A UNIVERSITY teacher and scientist, I can contribute a point of view that the new school board and the school administration will find valuable and constructive, that will help answer critics who know little about our schools, and that will keep the school system adapted to the needs of the community.

Robert Karplus, 57 Overhill Road, has his bachelor and doctors degrees from Harvard, and is a physics professor at the University of California. He was previously a member of the Harvard faculty.

He is a director of Orindans, Inc., and a member of the Orinda Association Civic Affairs Committe.

He was the Outstanding Young Man of 1957, an award presented by the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He has five children, two of whom are attending Glorietta School.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

All the things you are

WHEN ONE OF OUR CLUB WOMEN wrote her husband, a Navy man stationed currently in China, that she was going to model a Chemise at a fashion showing, he wired back post haste—"Absolutely No! I forbid it! STOP." Hubby has since learned via Vogue clippings & a Very Long Letter that a chemise of Today is not to be interpreted as the chemise of Yesteryear, remember? So Our Girl recently modeled same, quite smartly too, and if you were at the Orioles Party, you might GUESS who we mean!

One of our prettiest blonde Orinda matrons (the word hardly suits this mother of two handsome youngsters) ducked into the drugstore to replenish the "spirits" supply for a dinner party she was giving that night. The clerk took one look at her in jeans & keds, her long blonde hair held back w/a barrette, and asked for her Drivers License. Which she didn't have in hand. Both flattered & frustrated, she returned home to send hubby on this man's mission. But Oh, her morale . . . WHAT a boost!!

OVERHEARD AT THE GROUND COW . . . "How old would you say she is?" . . . "Oh, someplace in the middle Flirties."

Ever heard of this Homer's oddity?

PRE-HYSTERIC STORY . . . One young 6 yr. old of our acquaintance put down his current digest on Dinosaurs & Their Age and queried his mother w/much puzzlement—"Say, Mom, who the heck was this Homer Sapiens anyhow?"

MEETINGS, MTGS, MTGS!! Mickey Mueller pulled her car up along w/Liz Babcock's & others parked on Los Amigos and skipped up the stairs to attend a Den Mothers Mtg. Once inside the Usingers house, she was introduced by Emma & took her seat to listen to the evening's business. Talk seemed a bit off the track. Then someone asked her "You're new, aren't you?" "Oh, no," said Mickey, "I've been a Den Mother before." Meeting continued awhile when Emma saw the light & suggested that perhaps Mickey was due at the Harbell's across the street where another meeting was being held. Which she was, thank you. And the Sunday School Teachers session settled down to business again. More coffee anyone?

RALPH MOODY, SF author of popular children's books (Little Britches, etc.) kept the Library Mothers waiting for an hr. & a half the other day. Because he was held up aiding one of his B/G Restaurant workers who was having immigration difficulties. He never DID get to see the 5th & 6th graders (he'll STILL keep his promise) but the patient mothers, GLAD they'd waited, got a happy earful of choice Americana.

Moody, the modern Mark Twain, recalling that the spring dosage of Castor Oil was hard to take (oops!), said his sympathetic mother made it easier for him by coating the bottom of the spoon w/a little syrup and covering the dosage w/a lacing of the same sweet stuff. Moody compared this to his writing saying — When he thinks the kids nowadays need a dose of "castor oil"—he gives it to them the same way. Disguised by the syrup in & around & above. "It goes down easier," he says, "they get the "dose" and never know the difference!" A wonderful analogy if you've read his book.

Orinda Trustee Hopefuls Present Statements

Two vacancies on the Orinda School Board will be filled Tuesday when voters go to the polls to choose between five candidates.

Continuing its policy of presenting the views of candidates to the residents of Orinda, The Sun has asked each of them to prepare a statement presenting his or her views on the operation of the school district, followed by a brief biographical sketch.

Here are the statements.

Ruth Gilwee

We have lived in Orinda for 14 years. I have watched the Orinda grammar schools grow from several hundred to the present 2725 students.

I feel that we have good schools which we should be proud of. For the past 10 years, basic subjects have been the foundation of the school's program. If you have a child at the Jr. high school level, he is spending 70 per cent of his time during the day on basic subjects. This compares to a national average of less than 40 per cent.

HOWEVER, we all know that this is no time for complacency and I do not feel that either the administrators or the teachers are feeling complacent. It is one of the goals of our teachers to encourage our children to develop both mentally and physically to their maximum ability.

One of the biggest problems to be met constantly is how to handle an increasing number of students without losing sight of quality in the process.

This has and will continue to be a matter of board concern.

I think there is a definite place for a woman on the school board. Because of a woman's closer contact with children and community problems she has a valuable contribution to make to the board.

In addition to the evening meetings, if I am elected, I will be able to devote a generous amount of time to the study of school problems and to board duties.

I HAVE LIVED in Orinda for 14 years. I was graduated from Mills College with a major in education. I have two children, Jim, a freshman at Miramonte, and Janet. a third grade pupil.

Mrs. Gilwee served as president of the Nursery School in 1953 and served on the board for four years. She served four years on the board of the Mothers Club and acted as coordinator for Pine Grove School. She has been a den mother and brownie leader, is a former president of the Mills Club, and has been active in the library drive, heart drive, cancer fund and red cross.

James Halloran

Good business management is the key to solution of today's school problems is the claim of James J. Halloran, a leader in the West Coast electronics industry and a resident of the Oakland-Orinda area sinee 1940.

In a series of talks by candidates for the Orinda School Board, Mr. Halloran found parental reaction centering around the problems of their individual children without realizing that these problems are almost unsolvable without first solving the economic problems of a rapidly growing school system.

Mr. Halloran claims that a shortage of school buildings and equipment, as well as the demand for services over and beyond good budgetary control, are the causes of odd attendance hours. double sessions and shifting of students from school to school. These conditions unsettle the lives of children, parents and teachers alike.

In the solution of economic problems a goal is needed to which all can agree. One such goal would be to establish class schedules from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., depending upon the grade level.

A second goal would be the location of elementary schools within easy walking or bicycling distance of the homes they serve. A third goal would be to avoid any increase in school tax rates except in proportion to national inflation.

In the achievement of this third goal, Mr. Halloran believes he can bring to bear his experience at the local, state and national levels as former vice president and director of the West Coast Electronics Manufacturers Association, which has been largely responsible for the development and growth of California's fourth largest industry.

Mr Halloran is a graduate of the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena and former chairman of the Caltech Alumni Association in the Bay Area. He is also a life member of the University of California Alumni Association and a former member of the Oakland Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Halloran family established its present home at 59 Hillcrest Drive Orinda, in 1949. As a family they have been active in Cub Scouts Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, community drives and school and neighborhood activities. Mr. Halloran is former secretary of the Glorietta Improvement Association. The three Halloran children have been educated in the Orinda schools.

To help assure sound decisions on varying problems, School Board members should represent a variety of interests and experience. This is especially desirable with Orinda's expanding program, requiring judgements related not only to new buildings and equipment, but to educational policies and recruitment of teachers.

OUR CONTINUING need for new facilities demands prudent use of funds. But with our basic building program now outlined for several years ahead, the Board can give more attention to the kind of education we wish for our children.

This is fortunate in view of the whole nation's intensified interest in the quality of its schools.

The Board can serve Orinda's schools not only by overseeing business affairs, but also in these important ways:

1. Through continued support of Supt. Joe Sheaff and the administrative and teaching staff in their explorations toward the best possible school program for all our children.

2. Through developing procedures for further strengthening communication between citizens and their School Board.

3. THROUGH continuing the Board's leadership in promoting a professional climate and salary schedule that attract the finest teachers and contribute to their enthusiasm and enterprise.

For many years certain Board members have assisted in selecting teachers. through interviews — a responsibility to which skill, tact, and practice all contribute.

Here I believe my training which includes interviewing experience, could be of special value.

With the present Board's only woman member retiring, I would also hope as a mother to help facilitate liaison between parents and administrators, and to assist in possible daytime assignments.

FRANCES NEWMAN, mother of three school-aged children and a 3-month-old baby, has served as publicity chairman and Board member of the Mother's Club. and school representative and Board member of the Orinda Estates Association.

Formerly chairman of the Parents' Curriculum Committee, organized at the administration's request in 1956, she is now a School Board appointee on the Orinda-Lafayette Committee on Programs for Gifted Children.

A Stanford graduate, she later worked at the U. C. Institute of Child Welfare. She has been active in Orinda Cub Scout, Girl Scout and Nursery School affairs, and in United Crusade and Li-

Gordon Ainsworth

I am a candidate for election to the Orinda school board for three definitive seasons. These are:

1. Our schools are big business currently absorbing over 50 cents out of each tax dollar. As a business man with years of experience including planning and administering large advertising and public relations budgets in Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corporation, I believe I can bring experienced, mature judgment to the problem of planning and budgeting for the best school system we can afford.

2. ORINDA HAS excellent teachers with a very high level of interest in the job they're doing and with high morale.

However, we must continue to be very selective in the teachers who are hired and who are continued in their jobs in Orinda.

My experience in personnel training programs and in hiring and training many people for my company will enable me to bring sound, practical experience to this important job of the Board.

3. It has become obvious in my contacts with parents that too many of them lack information about what the problems and issues in their schools really are.

I BELIEVE THIS lack of information can be overcome by improving the flow of communications between the Board, the school administration, and the parents.

I have been in advertising and public relations for ten years and believe that the skills in communication learned in these professions can help improve the parents' understanding of their school problems and enable the Board to reflect a more informed opinion of all Orinda parents..

WHAT'S DOING
Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

If you're on the go these fine spring weekends, you won't often be far away from a phone. We install phone booths where you're most apt to need them. Last year more than 2500 new ones went up in the Pacific West. You'll find these handy booths in vacation spots and in everyday places, too. By finding out where the demand is greatest, we're able to select the locations that are most convenient for you. Near busy street corners. In hotels, drug stores, gas stations. Wherever you go, your phones away from home make your service even more valuable to you.

* * * * *

Next time you see a group of telephone men at work, take a good look. Bet you'll notice they're all wearing glasses. These are individually-fitted safety glasses. And they're a big help in preventing eye injuries. The glasses are made so they won't shatter even under a heavy blow. The way we look at it, our people are the biggest asset we've got. And your best guarantee of good service. So we're strong for safety around here.

Alternate Government Plan For Contra Costa Revealed

The State Assembly Interim Committee on Municipal and County Government will hold a public hearing in the Contra Costa County Supervisorial chambers in Martinez June 6 at 10 a.m., according to Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen.

Under discussion will be proposals that would modernize county organizational structure and permit establishment of a county manager form of government where desired, Nielsen said.

NIELSEN IS a member of the six-man County Supervisors Association of California Committee to study local and county government.

The proposals, as outlined by the state association committee, would include the authority for the county supervisors to appoint a county manager upon approval of the voters of the county.

Other officials of the county who would be appointed rather than elected would be county clerk, auditor, treasurer, recorder, tax collector, public administrator and coroner.

IN CONTRA COSTA the offices of Clerk-Recorder are merged as are Treasurer-Tax Collector and Public Administrator-Coroner.

Offices which will continue to be elective will be assessor, sheriff and district attorney, Nielsen noted.

In part, the proposed legislation includes that when any offices are made appointive by the board of supervisors or by mandate of the people the appointments shall be made according to merit and fitness from eligible lists established in accordance with rules adopted by the supervisors.

Nielsen noted that the new law, if adopted by the state, would apply to counties without a charter form of government and has been set up to permit an alternate organization to govern general law counties.

Tax Exemption File Deadline Is May 27

Contra Costa County's 35,000 war veterans have until May 27 in which to file for the $1000 property tax exemption allowed them by state law, County Assessor C. L. Dunklee announced today.

While a majority of veterans have already made the necessary returns, Dunklee said, several thousand of them remain to be heard from.

Under a system Dunklee inaugurated several years ago, a veteran need only establish his exemption right once, after which he will be notified each year that it is up for renewal.

Failure to claim the exemption for any particular year means that the process of reestablishing it must be gone through the following year.

The exemption applies to veterans who own property assessed at not more than $5000, which is increased to $10,000 in the case of a veteran and his wife. Total value of all property, including cash, stocks and bonds, must not exceed these maximum amounts.

The exemption also applies to men and women now in the service and the widow, pensioned widow or pensioned father or mother of a veteran. A father or mother may be eligible where they were dependents.

Dunklee said that the veteran or his wife must appear personally when applying for an exemption for the first time, supplying evidence of service such as discharge papers. Men now in the service may apply for necessary affidavit forms by mail.

Also needed is a legal description of the property owned by the veteran and his wife and the property must be of record as of the first Monday in March.

Dunklee said that applications may be made at his office in Martinez or the Richmond branch office at 100 37th Street in that city.

Dunklee said that the value of veterans exemptions granted in this county this year will probably exceed $33,000,000.

Wayne Bailey In Seminar Of Executives

R. Wayne Bailey, executive vice president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, was one of the faculty members at a seminar of national real estate board executives held in Chicago last week.

The seminar, the 15th annual session of its kind, was held under the auspices of the Secretaries Council of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. All aspects of modern real estate board administration will be studied by board executives from all parts of the country.

Transit District Asks Key Price; Recall Movement on

The California Public Utilities Commission will be asked to set a "fair price" on Key System Transit Lines' bus operations, rights, property and buses, according to Robert Nisbet, secretary-attorney of the district.

The filing of the petition was authorized Monday night and will replace an earlier petition which included the E and F train lines of Key System.

TRAIN SERVICE was stopped by Key April 20 following permission granted by the PUC.

Nisbet noted that the district intends to buy Key System, but condemnation proceedings will be used, if necessary.

Meanwhile, discord flared among the ranks of the district's directors as William J. Bettencourt charged that a recall movement aimed at John H. McDonnell of Oakland and himself was "engineered by the disillusioned minority member of the board."

J. Howard Arnold of Albany has publicly stated he is supporting the recall movement.

The movement is being sponsored by the committee to Preserve Bridge Rail Service, headed by C. J. Sullivan, a University of California professor.

SULLIVAN CLAIMS the two directors did not fight hard enough to keep transbay trains in service.

Bettencourt of San Leandro called the recall "simply another link in the long chain of familiar obstructionist tactics engineered by the disillusioned minority member of the board whose warped political thinking is indicated by continuous attacks on such political institutions as the State Public Utilities Commission and the State Division of Highways and on public officials."

Bettencourt said the district has made genuine progress during its brief existence "despite the ill-conceived oratorical outbursts and maneuvers of our misguided representative from the second ward" (Arnold's ward).

"It is unfortunate that the unhappy rail warrior persists in staying on one decrepit track. But it is fortunate that the voters of the second ward will be given an opportunity in November to get him off the tracks entirely . . ." Bettencourt said.

Bettencourt voted with three other directors against appealing to the State Supreme Court a PUC decision allowing Key System to abandon its transbay train service and substitute buses.

Bettencourt said the district and the five-county Bay Area Rapid Transit District "are not competitors, as viewed by the dissident minority member, but partners working together" on the region's complex mass transit problems.

John Holt, recall committee vice chairman, said 20,000 signatures will be sought in McDonnell's ward which includes North Oakland, Piedmont, Emeryville and West Berkeley.

In Bettencourt's district covering Alameda, San Leandro and East Oakland, the committee will try to get from 22,000 to 23,000 signatures.

Holt estimated about 13,000 valid signatures will be required from McDonnell's district and 15,000 in Bettencourt's to get the recall issue to a vote.

EACH PETITION lists reasons for the recall. Bettencourt is accused of following "a devious and inconsistent course of action regarding bridge rail service" and of being "either unaware or unmindful of the transit needs of his own ward."

The petition against McDonnell accuses him of stating that he does not favor public ownership of transit facilities, of refusing to follow engineering advice given the district and of having "had very little to say" at board meetings on transit matters.

Arnold argued the PUC should be asked to put a price on Key's rail rights and property. The company's trains, however, already are slated for the scrap heap, agreement has been reached with the City of Oakland on removal of train tracks from West Grand Avenue, and rails on approaches to the San Francisco terminal building are being removed.

The PUC will be asked to fix a total price for: 276 of Key's newest buses, including 21 delivered last month; bus yards in Oakland, Emeryville and Richmond; the station, waiting area and right-of-way between San Pablo Avenue and Adeline Street in Emeryville; all buildings and repair equipment; 17 service automobiles and 25 trucks, and all miscellaneous bus equipment.

Directors are preparing a transit plan which they hope to finance with a bond issue of a still undetermined amount to be put on the November ballot.

Directors also voted 4 to 1, Arnold dissenting, to contract with Alameda County for accounting and auditing services.

Garbage Disposal Report Rejected by Supervisors

A proposed garbage disposal ordinance submitted to the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors was rejected Tuesday in Martinez following a verbal exchange between the district attorney and a candidate for district attorney in the June primaries.

John A. Nejedly submitted the report and proposed ordinance to the county board, but on the advice of district attorney Francis Collins the board turned it down

COLLINS CHARGED that the proposed ordinance had not been authorized by the committee and that it was the sole doing of Nejedly.

Nejedly retorted that Collins had not attended one meeting of the garbage disposal committee.

"The committee report was unanimous with the exception of Collins who failed to attend any meeting, although he was directed by the board to do so," Nejedly said.

"ALL THE OTHER committee members donated their time to serve, but when the report was submitted to the supervisors it was immediately attacked by Collins, thinking that by attacking the report he was attacking me," stated Nejedly.

Collins, in the board meeting, said that the report is strictly a political move on the part of Nejedly and I am not interested in the politics of garbage. I'm interested in a reasonable solution of the entire garbage problem, countywide."

After the exchange of comments, the board reactivated the garbage disposal committee and set June 24 at 10 a.m. for continued hearing on the matter.

THE PROPOSAL submitted called for the county to require garbage collectors to obtain county permits as a first step for eventual franchised operations.

Nejedly commented that he would write to the board for further clarification of the board's actions.

Cranston Charges Mismanagement Of State Funds

Charges that millions of dollars in state funds have been lost due to "incredible mismanagement" by the incumbent Republican State Controller and two other state officials were made by Alan Cranston, Democratic candidate for State Controller at a reception given for him at the Richmond Democratic Headquarters Tuesday afternoon.

"The Controller has favored the banks, not the people," Cranston declared. "He was one of those responsible for the fact that an average of 590,000,000 of state money sat in bank accounts that paid no interest—until the treasury scandals came to light in 1955.

Cranston visited The Sun Tuesday.

$50,000,000 of this was spare money not needed to pay current costs of state government. There was a failure to invest money even after the scandals.

"I don't know a single businessman or housewife who doesn't invest spare money in a savings account or elsewhere. Why anyone handling state money should behave any differently is a mystery," he said. Cranston stopped at The Sun during his tour of the county.

Bates, Bradbard Back Conti for Assembly Post

Hal Bates of Lafayette, county civic leader and insurance agent, today accepted the chairmanship of a district-wide committee backing Sam Conti for Assembly.

Bates will be assisted by Sam Bradbard, county Taxpayers' Association official and county school board member. Bradbard, a Pleasant Hill attorney, will act as co-chairman.

"IN ALL PARTS of the district and in both parties we are finding not only support but great enthusiasm for Sam Conti," Bates said. "People are seeing in Sam's experience the evidence that he can—and will—tackle our serious problems successfully.

Others on the steering committee of the citizen's group working for Conti are Mrs. James E. Irwin, Jr., of Orinda, John W. Lynch of Concord, Jack Fries of Martinez, E. Parker Smith of Pittsburg and Don Baxter of Lafayette.

Bates, long active in youth work and Republican party politics, was in charge of all YMCA Indian Guide activities in East Contra Costa County. He has also been active in Cub Scout work.

BRADBARD IS a graduate of Annapolis and is an authority in the field of education. Now a member of the County Board of Education, he is a past president of that group and is treasurer of the Contra Costa School Boards Association. He also represents all county school boards in the state on the executive committee of the California School Boards Association.

Named "Man of the Year" for Pleasant Hill in 1956, Bradbard was also honored with a life membership in the California Congress of PT-A for his work in youth activities. He is on the executive committee of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association.

Conti has cross-filed for the Assembly post now held by Donald Doyle of Lafayette, who is not seeking re-election. An attorney and county civic leader, Conti is a member of the President's Highway Safety Committee and a recent trustee of the Pittsburg Board of Education.

Development Group to Hold Annual Dinner

George J. Ticoulot, vice president of Crown-Zellerbach Corporation, will speak at the 22nd annual installation dinner of the Contra Costa County Development Association, May 28 at the Diablo Country Club.

Outgoing president Aubrey Macomber of Martinez will submit his report of the association's activities and accomplishments during the fiscal year. In the mails are ballots for the annual election of 21 directors one third of the association's board. The full board of 63 members will meet Tuesday at the association's headquarters in Martinez to elect 1958-59 officers.

Ticoulot, a native of Santa Cruz, entered the paper business in 1917.

Nejedly Hits 'Part Time' DA Post

John A. Nejedly, candidate for full-time District Attorney today submitted to Assemblyman Masterson, Assemblyman Doyle and Senator George Miller, J., a bill to be adopted by the State Legislature to prohibit the private practice of law by the District Attorney of Contra Costa County.

"I have asked our representatives in the State Legislature to join in passing this legislation so that the standards for our county may be raised to the level of all other large counties in which private practice by the District Attorney is prohibited and when elected District Attorney" stated Nejedly, "I will support this legislation and secure its adoption.

"I HAVE PLEDGED myself to the complete termination of all private practice as recommended by the Grand Jury, and the passage of this legislation will guarantee that termination."

Nejedly also announced that he had the full support of over 100 civic, professional and ministerial leaders following a recent breakfast in his honor at the Hotel Don, Richmond.

NEJEDLY ALSO restated his promise, when elected, to develop a thorough training program for all police officers in the county in the laws of arrest, securing of evidence and trial techniques.

Nejedly said, "at present, the District Attorney, devoting considerable time to private practice, makes no directed effort to inform the police departments and the sheriff's office on changes in criminal prosecutions, particularly in the laws of arrest and securing of evidence."

Thrift Is Cry Of McIntosh In Campaign

Campaign members working on the "Bill McIntosh for Supervisor" Citizens Committee this week dubbed the candidate "Thrifty Mac."

McIntosh stated his stand on taxes at a meeting of the campaign policy committee on Saturday, saying that "tax money is being used wastefully. Let's have a thrift plan for Contra Costa County."

HE SAID, "If I'm elected supervisor of the Third District, my thrift plan is to start by giving full time service to the residents of the district. This means full value to Contra Costa County taxpayers for their tax dollars."

An insurance representative for the past 16 years, McIntosh has resigned his position effective July 1.

"I am leaving my present employment in line with the recommendations made by the grand jury in its 1956-57 report proposing that County Supervisors spend full time on County business and divorce themselves from conflicting interests," McIntosh pointed out.

"I HAVE NO private business or investment interests, no pet projects and no tie-in with any special interest groups," the candidate emphasized.

"I believe a supervisor is duty bound to exercise careful supervision of county expenditures and eliminate waste, duplication and inefficiency. We must utilize existing facilities wherever possible, give budgets a most careful screening and pay strict attention to carrying out grand jury recommedations," McIntosh said.

Marchi Says Assessments Were Too High

A charge that Contra Costa Tax assessments were raised 35 per cent by the incumbent county assessor, following a State Board of Equalization edict, while at least one other county made no raise at all, and others made smaller raises, was hurled today by Ernest J. Marchi, Walnut Creek realtor, who is a candidate for the Assessor post.

In an open question to the incumbent assessor, Marchi asked: "Why were you so generous with Contra Costa taxpayers' money, Mr. Dunklee?"

THE CANDIDATE said he had talked to Phil Lucas, assessor of Tulare county, who told him he had resisted the state board's request for a 35 per cent raise by fighting the case to the supreme court and that Tulare "did not" have to make any raise."

Marchi also said that figures printed in San Francisco newspapers last week showed that George Hall, assessor in Marin county, who also resisted the State Board's order for the past few years, finally agreed to a reappraisal assessment which amounts to 22 per cent increase—instead of the 35 per cent placed in effect in Contra Costa County.

"ON APRIL 9, a statement was printed by the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association that there had been a 71.8 per cent increase in proprety tax levy per capita in Contra Costa county in the past five years. In the light of this fact, it is inconceivable to me that the present County Assessor would have consented to the 35 per cent assessment increase without opposing it as the Tulare and Marin assessors did.

"I am making the charge early enough in the campaign that the incumbent has plenty of time to answer it. The people have a right to know why," said Marchi.

Marchi has been a realtor-appraiser for the past 12 years and previously was a newspaperman for 14 years.

Dr. Fraser In Support Of Collins

Dr. L. H. Fraser, Contra Costa County Coroner who will be unopposed for re-election on the June primary ballot, today came out in support of Francis W. Collins for re-election as district attorney.

"I have been coroner of this county for the past four years and during that time I have found that Mr. Collins is available for duty to this office 24 hours a day, seven days a week. He has never failed during my tenure to perform as a full time district attorney.

"We in Contra Costa County are fortunate to have such a hard working public official. His return to that office is a must for the good of the taxpayers as well as all of Contra Costa County.

"My experience with other offices and departments in the county government reinforces my feelings about the district attorney and the high type of office he operates. They all feel as I do—that he is a valuable public official, one this county cannot afford to lose.

"In all legal matters that have affected the boards and agencies on which I have reserved, Mr. Collins has always performed in a highly satisfactory manner. "I will urge his re-election as district attorney."

Dunklee Pledges Fair Assessments

A continuing policy of fair property assessments was promised today by County Assessor C. L. Dunklee in his campaign for re-election to office.

Pointing to his professional background and 28 years of experience in the assessor's office, Dunklee declared that he has always adhered to the principle that the "job of the county assessor is to assure that the valuation on all property is fair and equitable; that one homeowner, for example, is not at a disadvantage in relation to his neighbor."

DUNKLEE SAID that it should be understood that the "assessor does not set tax rates and has nothing to say about taxes or how they shall be levied or spent."

"Your assurance that the taxes you eventually pay are based on fair property values rests with your assessor, and my 28 years of work in the assessment field have been devoted to equality for all. Were it otherwise the people would have said so long ago."

Dunklee has been a resident of Contra Costa County for 33 of his 62 years. He graduated from the University of Indiana in 1917 with a degree in civil engineering, enlisting in the Army with the entry of the United States in World War I.

HE HELD THE job of assistant county assesor until 1954, when he ran for the assessor's job and was elected without opposition upon the retirement of Justin A. Randall of Martinez.

"The complex field of property, assessments, with all of its ramifications, calls for knowledge and experience," Dunklee said. "And I am asking for re-election on the basis of both my known qualifications for the job and my established fairness in dealing with all assessment problems."

Jewell Levels Blasts at GOP

Howard H. Jewel, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, today charged that the Republican administration in Washington has created what he called "an economic miracle of higher and higher prices simultaneous with increasing unemployment."

"Prices increase with each new week, despite continued unemployment. The result is that all wage-earners find themselves struggling to pay the bill for food, clothing and other essentials," Jewel said.

JEWEL, 34-YEAR-OLD attorney and former Assistant Public Defender in Alameda County, said, "Republican charges that inflation is the result only of high wages are just so much smoke."

"If this were true, price would come down at times like these when unemployment is widespread, demand is low and many people are not receiving any wages at all," Jewel said.

Jewel also challenged his Republican opponent to take a public stand on the issues of inflation, unemployment, foreign policy and labor legislation.

"I BELIEVE that, as candidates for the U.S. House of Representatives, both the Republican incumbent and myself owe it to the voters in our district to state our positions on national issues clearly and unequivocally," Jewel said.

Jewel has taken a strong stand against the so-called 'right-to-work' proposal, calling it "an obvious attempt to cripple the hard-won collective bargaining rights of labor."

The School Section of the Contra Costa Safety Council held its final meeting of the school year on Tuesday at the Contra Costa Safety Council Headquartres, 2030 Mt. Diablo Street, Concord.

Job Program Aids Acalanes High Seniors

Finding a job whether or not there is an economic slump may be a tough experience. Finding the kind of job to find isn't easy either, when you're a high school senior puzzling over the more than 100,000 different kinds of occupations you can go into.

Acalanes High School counselor Robert Stevens, who heads the vocational information program at the Lafayette High School, points out that one of the major problems faced by the graduating class of any secondary school is "What do I do now?"

In order to help students to determine the best vocational direction they an follow—whether to go on to college, to trade school or directly into the employment market — Acalanes High School counselors have worked out an elaborate counseling and occupational information program.

As an adjunct to that program, Acalanes Principal Stanley Walgren reports the addition of an occupational library with a complete index on job types, requirements for employment and income potential.

In explanation counselor Stevens added that each student attends at least two vocational panels per year on occupations that interest him. "The panels feature successful workers in the field of interest and experts on the training and qualifications required in that particular line of work.

"By the time the average Acalanes student has completed his senior year, he has had an opportunity to consider a vocation in his ninth grade studies, related studies through special assignments in Senior Problems classes and a chance to sit privately with his counselor and attend eight panels on different vocations.

"In addition, the counseling department assists students in selecting higher training and college education programs after high school," Stevens said.

Miss Ruth Fletcher, Acalanes librarian, also assisted in the collection and organization of materials for the new vocational bookroom.

Commenting on the vocational library, Principal Walgren observed that "preparing the student for further education and helping him get some idea of vocational opportunities is one of the primary activities at high school. We hope that the new vocational library we've just added helps us do the job even better."

The new Acalanes vocational library, set aside in a room just off the main student library, gets underway with 2400 pamphlets on professional and trade vocational opportunities and nearly one hundred volumes on employment and vocations ranging from medicine, law, mechanics and science to farming.

Acalanes High Area Voters to Choose Trustees

Voters living within the confinees of the Acalanes High School District will choose two trustees at the polls Tuesday.

Following are the statements of two of the three candidates running for the two vacancies which will come up.

William Lee

As the newest member of the Acalanes High School District Board of Trustees, I am seeking election for the first time. It has been my pleasure to work with the Board for the past 5 months, long enough to learn at least a few fundamental points.

First, I know now from experience that we are singularly fortunate to have such a dedicated and competent group as those with whom I have had the privilege of serving on the board.

I BELIEVE THE interested public is well aware of their ability and vision, and I believe that I can work effectively with them to the benefit of the community and the future of our schools.

Secondly, a position on the board is one of considerable importance an responsibility which must be approached with a vigorous interest. I am eager to continue my service, and will accept the honor of being elected with a genuine desire to help in providing the best possible educational facilities and opportunities for our children.

At this time of critical examination of the past worth and future prospects of our schools, I believe we must remember that they are truly public schools. As such, our schools have an obligation to the entire public.

THIS MEANS special stimulus for the gifted, and it means attention for those less than normally endowed. But by sheer numbers alone, it means that public education's greatest requirement must be for the great majority who lie between these two extremes. We must provide for all these categories of public education as effectively as possible, but under the specific financial and practical limitations as determined by the public's willingness and ability to provide the funds.

I look forward to the opportunity to work for the Acalanes School District with this pholosophy in mind.

WILLIAM W. LEE has lived in Walnut Creek for nine years. He was educated in Berkeley and San Francisco Schools and is a Stanford University graduate.

He is the father of four children, a Rotarian, and sales manager of Marshall Steel Co.

He is active in community affairs and has held a lifetime interest in school activities. He is the son of a former dean of education at U.C.L.A. and has been a member of the Acalanes Board since 1957.

Roy Mangini

Living in the Acalanes School District for over four years, I have become aware of the "big business" aspects of the school district.

Every year our tax bills mount and seemingly no relief is in sight. Consequenty I was determined to find out what, where and how was our tax money spent.

After observing the purchasing procedures very closely in the past years I feel certain some additional steps toward economy can be taken.

I INTEND TO do my utmost along these lines. The function of a board member is not to run the schools, but to see that they are run and how they are run.

I believe a member of a school board has certain duties and obligations as a school board member. Some of them are:

Interpreting the educational needs of the district he represents.

Selecting the superintendent of the district.

Developing educational policies in accordance with the laws and the needs of the community.

Getting qualified personnel to properly present educational material to students effectively.

MAINTAINING financial assets to provide physical and educational facilities to carry out the designated program.

Keeping the people informed of the purpose, value, conditions and needs of education in the Acalanes School District.

Keep a working first - hand knowledge of the teacher and the pupil.

I believe when I am elected I will be there as an elected representative, not an appointed one. A representative of the people and their children, not in the interests of the school department or the people responsible for appointing new board members.

ROY MANGINI is 33 years old, a former high school teacher in Oakland where he worked for five years.

His primary and secondary education was obtained in Oakland. Upon graduation from high school he entered the Army Air Corps serving as a 2nd lieutenant bombardier in a B-29.

After World War II Mangini entered San Jose State and graduated with an AB and general secondary teaching credentials.

He is living in the Lafayette Glenside area for the past four years with his wife Marcie and four children, Jan, Kim and twins Jill and Todd. He is a member of the Glenside Improvement Association and the Walnut Creek Lions Club.

Builds you up...as it cools you off!
Nothing quenches your thirst like a long, cold glass of milk! That's because milk is nature's "double-duty" drink. From the first, cool sip it's refreshing as a north breeze on a hot day. But, more than that—milk keeps you refreshed long after the glass is empty, because it replaces energy-protein your body burns up fast.
So—for refreshment that builds you up as it cools you off—make your drink MILK!

Outdoor School Site? How About a Sampling?

The proposed outdoor education site in The Sierras that the Orinda School District is considering is undoubtedly of interest and importance to all thinking Orindans.

Because there is a choice—to take advantage of this mountain site, or to abandon the project—it is of interest.

And of course, like in most endeavors of this type, the old bugaboo cost creeps in.

THE ORINDA SCHOOL District has been doing what appears to be a studying the facts in preparation to presenting them to the residents of Orinda at a public meeting.

The site is a seven acre parcel located between Fallen Leaf Lake and Lake Tahoe, about 115 miles from Orinda.

It will be given to the Orinda School District without cost by the United States Government provided certain conditions are fulfilled.

Within one year from the time the offer was made (that was last fall) the Orinda School District must accept, or the land will be offered to another school district.

The land is offered under a 30 year contract. During that 30 years the school district must improve the land with sewer facilities, buildings, etc.

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT has allocated $750 to architects to study the site and prepare a plan, bceause a master plan of development must be submitted at the time of aceptance of the agreement, and construction must start the first year.

Occupancy of the site must occur in the second year.

It is important to note that this is not a program which is unique with the Orinda School District. In 1955-56 there were 79 school districts participating in the U. S. Forestry Service program called "Operation Outdoors."

It is a wonderful program, and it is simply a matter of cost. Orindans can have this for their children if they want to pay for it.

Therefore, we have a respectful suggestion to make to The Orinda School Board.

THIS BOARD HAS already agreed to hold a public hearing on the proposed site, at which time all the pertinent facts will be presented.

In that we have had long experience with public hearings, we would suggest that the following action be taken.

Either before or after the public hearing, send a ballot home with the children in the school district, that the parents could fill out and have returned to the school.

This would give a fair sampling of the opinion of Orinda parents, and would prevent what has so often happened at public hearings.

That is the fact that either a pro or con faction can so dominate a meeting that a fair hearing is a near impossibility.

WE DO NOT mean to say that the Orinda School District would not present a fair hearing—far from it. But a few people who were opposed to the issue could so sway the meeting that the wishes of the majority of Orindans, who were in favor of the program, would be ignored.

Or the reverse could happen.

This type of hearing simply would not be accurate enough. We think the public hearing is an excellent idea, and could be presented before the poll, as an informative meeting, or afterwards, as an explanation of the action that the board decides to take.

A neighboring school district recently polled its residents on an enriched summer program with excellent returns and a better understanding by the board of the true feelings of the residents.

We suggest that the Orinda School District consider this course of action.

Candidates Learn There's Killing With Kindness Too

By PAT PENDING

Hugh O'Brian (better known as Wyatt Earp) rode into Concord last Sattiday along with the gun carriage for his Buntline Special, Jerry Colonna (complete with eyebulbs), Alan Hale, and something for the boys called Kathy Nolan.

Nobody will ever nickname O'Brian "Hurrying Hugh" so McElhenney needn't worry!

OF COURSE, you-all cain't blame Hugh for the fact that the parade was an hour or so late. Each of the Concord wheels had to have his turn to spin at Buchanan Field before the cavalcade sirened to the Park and Shop.

Meanwhile, the spectators became restless and the majorettes got goose pimples on their goose pimples. The parade was short but good. In my book, the only sour note was the political plug on the chaparajos of the rider of a magnificent Arabian!

Seems to me that politics could have been amitted from a parade for the YMCA.

HOW TO INFLUENCE FRIENDS AND WIN PEOPLE DEPARTMENT.

I HAVE ALWAYS thought of Ferrari as a foreign automobile and, hearing that one was running for County Superinendent of Schools, I thought it was either flotsam from the Mexican Road Race or that we were carrying automation too far.

I was wrong.

Ferrari is Lewis J. (no relation of Henry J.) and he IS running for Superintendent of Schools in Contra Costa County. There's nothing unique about this except the man is so well liked by the students of a certain Pittsburg school that they are asking their parents to vote against him so they can keep him!

What better recommendation could a man have?

Lew just hopes the kids won't "kill him with kindness"!

It has been brought to my attention that there is an organization, Acalanes Community Concerts, that believes we have many sophisticates wandering around here somewhere.

Oscar (a bird in the hand is worth two in the) Busch is president.

THERE WILL BE a big kick-off dinner at the Nut Bowl in Walnut Creek Monday hearolding the beginning of a five day campaign for new members. All squirrels will be admitted free! If you wish to join, write Box 106, Walnut Creek.

Acalanes Community Concerts plans on having lily ponds at the Las Lomas High School by Noveber 6. Bulldozers are already at work and, if you purchase a membership, you may bring your own frog! Later, they plan on having the San Francisco Belly Dancers and a world-famed pianist.

Seriously, Lily Pons, the renowned opera singer will be at Las Lomas High School November 6. She's already signed. And the San Franicsco Ballet will perform shortly thereafter. I just could not help giving these announcements the famous Pending treatment.

I think it really worthwhile—what this organization is doing to bring real culture to the hinterlands. Besides that, I hope to get four Annie Oakley's to the Nut Bowl dinner!

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Don't want to string out the church-school argument unduly, but something has come up of great importance. Please note the article in Coronet for May, by Henry M. Christian, "Church, State -and Strife." It opens with "Is religion setting American against one another?" and ends "Hundreds of American communities have been split. Is yours one of them?"

What comes between is a description, with examples, of how it is happening, and the current Contra Costa argument is a fair sample: except that in the cases cited it isn't atheists, Jews, etc. against Christians, but Christians against each other agreeing that religion should be shoved into the schools and fighting about which brand is to be shoved in. Everybody with children in school, and all the teachers—in fact everybody, period, should read this.

There is no safeguard gainst this kind of problem except to just not let it get started in the first place, thus showing again the infinite foresight of the Founders of the Republic—who in my opinion were more divinely guided than any leader of a quarrelsome Christian sect has ever been.

I note another letter answering mine, with no name attached. To which:

1. It wasn't only people in San Francisco and Marin and Contra Costa who were protesting It was all over the country.

2. It isn't a matter of "confusing" children to my mind. It was a matter of setting apart children of minority religions to have other children's fingers pointed at them for not conforming to the majority belief. I know! I went to school as a boy in a community where, althought I was nominally a member of a Christian sect, it was a very minority one in that school; and was not only a matter of fingers pointing but of throwing rocks at recess. You get that kind of thing whenever you get people really in earnest about religion. And always have for thousands of years.

3. James Dent may not have sinister motives. But he sure has a sinister attitude when he implies that anybody unholding the constitutional principle of separation of Church and State should be "investigated." If he wants to investigate anybody he can start with me.

4. Not pertinent to the immediate subject—but Jesus did not introduce a way of life or philosophy that was "absoultely revolutionary." Buddha taught the same principles 500 years before—even went further in some respects And he took inspiration from still older writings.

5. Yes, a fanatic advocated that nobody but a Christian should hold office, and got jumped on. He was just a little too much ahead of his time. It would take about twenty years for the children to be conditioned enough to make it policitally possible. He also sounded off in the wrong town as well as in the wrong time —San Francisco has 30% church members as against 60 national average. But said fanatic represented many millions not quite so outspoken.

Two sects have never admitted the primacy of secular government at all. In 1874, 1953, and 1955, Constitutional amendments were introduced into Congress to require all oaths taken to the U.S. to be as to a "Christian nation," but did come to vote—yet.

Listen to Billy Graham. How much rope would he allow non-Christians if he were running the country?

Mildred Gragg's original letter showed very little respect for "minorities." With that attitude it is only a matter of time until somebody will claim that the 30% non-church minority in the country has no right to object if the rest want this a "Christian" nation.

Again—read that Coronet article!

THANKS

Dear Editor:

For the past six years it has been my privilege to serve in the Assembly of the State of California, and as you have no doubt heard I have decided not to run for re-election but instead I intend to devote myself to my insurance business and to my growing family.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your newspaper very much for the many favors that you have done for me during the past years. It has indeed been a pleasure to have been associated with you and I look forward to a continuation of our friendship in the future.

Your newspaper indeed does a service to the community, state and nation by the fair dissemination of news. I appreciate the many times that you have given by views consideration and space in your paper.

COMMENT?

Dear Eidtor:

In view of all that has been said in the past, and nothing done about it, the taxpayers have again been taken.

While everyone in the State of California knows that there is a Primary Election coming up on Tuesday, June 3, can you imagine my surprise when the mailman left me a sample ballot for a special election for the school board to be held on May 20, or just two weeks earlier?

Any comment?

WILLIAM A. RACINE

ED'S NOTE: State law dictates that school board elections be held on the third Tuesday of May. The trustee elections are not legally termed "special" elections.

Under The Sun

Let Us Not Run Out Of Good Drinking Water

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

How are you going to vote on Proposition B at the June 3 primary election?

Frankly, three weeks ago I did not know what Proposition B was—much less how to vote on it. (Everyone is affected by this except a large section of Pleasant Hill.)

Proposition B proposes a $252,000,000 bond issue to expand the water facilities of the East Bay Municipal Utility District over the next 10 years. I am not going into detail in today's column except to say that in 10 years every drop of EBMUD water will be allocated and there will be none for future growth.

Three questions they face

I have heard two presentations by EBMUD officials and they seem to fear three things in campaigning for this bond issue.

1. It is difficult to get a two thirds "yes" vote, which is required.

2. It is difficult to get this "water story" through to the people.

3. It is possible that some voters will use this election as a protest vote against the administration and policies of EBMUD.

Let us discuss the last point. Many voters, particularly in Contra Costa County, could very well say: "Ah, this is my chance to protest EBMUD's high-handed methods."

There can be no argument that EBMUD, particularly the board of directors, has been arbitrary. Their official actions have been almost secret. Do you ever see a newspaper report in the big city paper? (The Sun would very much like to cover their meetings but our staff is too limited.) Have you ever seen a press release from EBMUD's publicity department reporting the conclusions reached at a board meeting? Have you attempted to get an advance agenda of the meeting?

Railroad meetings

I am told that ,even if you are at a meeting, business is conducted so fast and smooth, with little or no discussion, you would have a hard time following what transpires. There seems to be little or no discussion or disagreement over anything at their regular meetings.

Fluoridation? There is only one obstacle to giving our children wonderful, healthy teeth through fluoridation water—that is the directors of EBMUD. Little Gregory Gardens Water District took a post card poll of its residents and the directors then fluoridated the water. Other cities and water districts throughout the country have done the same. Millions upon millions of people benefit from fluoridation.

EBMUD directors, however, refuse. They stand behind legalistic excuses and do nothing to eliminate what they say prevents them from fluoridating. They want the state legislature to pass a law clearing up minor points. They have never asked for such legislation, nor supported it when a bill has been considered.

They don't need such legislation. The California Attorney General has told them that. Anyhow, that's the fluoridation protest.

Land for sale . . .

Land policies? EBMUD policy has been high-handed and unreasonable in their land policies. Our communities have found them difficult to work with in the disposition of their vast acreage of land.

In the past, questions have arisen in the minds of many as to their method of land sales. Suddenly there would be an announcement that Mr. John Rich-man, who just happened to be an influential citizen, had purchased "X" acres of valuable EBMUD land. The purchase price was not publicized. No explanation as to how the land was priced. No one knew when the land was put on the market.

If you think I'm kidding, just look at the acreage between the Village and the Crossroads in Orinda. This is probably the last of the commercial property in Orinda—invaluable land. It was sold without any real public notice. The parcels were bought at prices lower than if they had auctioned the land. (What is value? That, of course, is a matter of opinion.)

Fortunately, EBMUD has changed this policy and, I understand, their land is now sold by bid.

I could go on listing the things wrong with EBMUD but you get the general idea.

Where do we stand?

Before continuing let me make this very clear: The Sun recommends a YES vote on Proposition B.

Water is California's most valuable resource. Southern California is desperately fighting to get as much of Northern California's water as possible—and will probably do so. Mountain counties in Northern California are fighting to retain water rights from Bay Area counties.

With foresight, EBMUD has acquired tremendous water rights for us. These water rights must be used or we lose them. The future growth and welfare of this area require that new dams, aqueducts, water towers, filter and pumping plants be constructed within the next 10 years. I will not go into all the arguments in support of the bond issue. They are valid.

It would be stupid to vote NO on Proposition B because you or I do not approve of all the policies of EBMUD. (I have seen this happen in school elections and it is wrong.) By voting no, we would hurt only ourselves.

Okay, let's get to work

If EBMUD's policies should be changed, let's approach it in a different manner. Go to meetings. Analyze their reports. Demand full explanations. Ask your taxpayers' and improvement associations to become interested.

And elect some new directors.

If you want to protest, the November general election is the time. Two directors will be up for re-election—Board Chairman Louis Bruener, representing Ward 3, central Oakland area; and Harold W. Saunders, of Lafayette, representing Ward 2.

According to description supplied by the District, Ward 2 "roughly consists of the following territory: The easterly portion of Berkeley and continuing east to include Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Saranap and Moraga."

Note that the northerly portion of Orinda and Happy Valley in Lafayette are in Ward 1.)

I do not hesitate to say that many people would like to see a new director on the board. I sincerely hope that someone from this area runs against Harold Saunders. There is nothing wrong with Mr. Saunders. On the contrary, he is an able, public-spirited citizen with good background.

Looking for courage

The board, however, needs someone new, who is willing and able to stand up and "WHY?" This man (or woman) must be inquisitive, intelligent, patient, capable, hard working and be willing to sacrifice certain number of hours to public service. (Directors receive $10 per meeting, with a maximum of payment of $20 monthly.)

The candidate must be high calibre or we could be making a poor exchange.

Candidates must reside within their specific ward. Candidates are voted upon at large and every voter in the district may vote for all directors to be elected.

There are specific procedures for filing. Call the district's Public Relations Department or me for details.

Perhaps you know someone who would qualify as a Good candidate for the board from this area.

A final point: Although many do not agree with EBMUD's policies and methods, I think it is a well-administered governmental unit. It is efficient. It furnishes wonderful water. It looks to the future. Mr. Bruener can be thanked for operating it more like a private corporation than a governmental district. This is good.

The District, however, can be improved and some new blood on the board could do it.

What do you think?

Letters to The Editor

EDUCATION
Dear Editor

Education, according to the many and extremely varied articles in newspapers and magazines and the diverse opinions and statements emanating from educators and John Q. Citizens is rapidly approaching a crises.

The patient lies helpless amid the cacophony of experts, quacks, loving relatives and well wishers.

What happens to him now depends on the judgement of the doctors chosen to attend him.

IF WE CARE, then we still have a voice in the selection of our local "physician."

The fact that there are nine candidates for the two vacancies on our Lafayette School District's Board of Education should be indication enough of the importance of the situation.

Everyone who has not taken the opportunity to hear these men express their views on current education owes it to him self, his children, and his share in the fate of his country to go and hear these men speak prior to the May 20 election - to consider well, and then to vote and get his friends and neighbors to vote.

THE RECENT board seems over - apprehensive about their own diagnosis. Although a thorough testing program has shown that our children in Lafayette School District test above national norms in achievement, the Board, apparently fearing complacency on the part of the administrators, seems compelled to offer a drastic "remedy" - amputation.

They say, "Non-intellectual electives should not be offered since they take time away from the mastery of the tool subjects (reading, writing, speaking and the fundamentals of mathematics.)

They say, "More emphasis on intellectual discipline and de-emphasis of life adjustment education is what we would like to see in the Lafayette Schools."

The board would like to see homework made mandatory from the third grade on. They say, "This creates an impetus to help gifted children. Also it is good discipline to provide children with homework to bring back for for correction."

THE BOARD believes that 'The Social Studies program needs revision; that history, geography and civics should be taught as separate subjects in logical sequence."

Do we need or want to cut off all we have added to our education program for young children, and get back to the "good old days" of autocratic education when reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, geography, history (and eventually civics) were dealt out in their "logical sequence"—whatever that is — forced in, tamped down, and burped back?

The only outside (quite literally) activity was recess, and for a great many of us over 40, that too, consisted of obeying the orders of someone who probably hated it as much as we did.

There were problem children then, just as there are now. There were poor students and good ones.

THE POOR ONES got Hail Columbia and more homework for discipline. The best ones got praise and more work (same stuff, but lots of it) for "impetus"; sometimes they got discouraged and gave up because more homework seemed like punishment.

The products of that brand of education are all around us. Some of them achieved a good education in spite of their schooling. Most of them probably turned into average John Q Citizens, as most people usually do. A few of them no doubt would be easy for any of us to find - the failures.

Many of us look with favor on the progressive trends education has been taking during recent years.

We are not complacent. We know there is always room for improvement, and we take the trouble to inquire about it.

WE FIND that our administrators welcome our interest, and that they are often cooperative beyond expectation.

Life-adjustment education, nonintellectual activities, and the cocial studies program form the core of a more enlightened trend in education. (It has already been pointed out that the "tool" subjects are not being neglected.)

The world we live in, where we succeed and fail with one another and with other nations, is not a world tidily divided into any kind of catagories in any kind of logical sequence.

History, geography, economics, sociology, language, all are interdependent in any point in time. What is more logical for the young than learning these relationships as they exist rather than as separate entities.

THERE IS time enough to begin specializing beyond the elementary grades, when the child's interests have developed enough that he can see life as a whole, and then narrow down his attention to the facts of life and learning for which he is best suited.

Any mother knows what a child learns by association. His tool subjects need to keep their feet on the ground by being learned in relation to the rest of the world.

If he can go and see a railroad yard or visit a mission, then his study on the subjects has more real meaning.

If he can see good paintings or go to hear a symphony concert or try his hand at an artistic representation of his own then he has a better feeling and knowledge for the meaning of art as an expression of living.

If education consisted entirely of facts, if the arts were only entertaining, if science meant nuclear fission and outer space then existence would hardly be worth the struggle.

Lets look to the continued improvement of our patient, education, but please, let's not mutilate him by removing any of his vital organs in haste!

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

"Wednesday at the Claremont" honored the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center last week and what a satisfaction it was to see literally hundreds of unit members pour into the Garden Room of that lovely hotel.

I don't think that there was a single unit that was not represented —some with as many as 40 members present. Ruth Franklin Dixon is such a charming commentator and has such a relaxed way about her that it is impossible not to feel at home. She looked comfortable and gay in a two piece champagne knit and a saucy hat trimmed with "hot orange."

And an orchid for Mrs. Benoy

Mrs. Charles Benoy, Adminstrator at the Center, was honored guest and was presented with a huge white orchid. She was introduced to the assemblage as were Mrs. Donald Johnson, chairman of the Coordinating Council, and the Mmes. Stanley Majka and Howard Burk, also members of the Council.

Mrs. Robert Wisecarver's chair at the same table was empty due to an illness in the family. As you no doubt know, each month the Claremont presents a $50 check to the organization with the most representation. We are keeping our fingers crossed that the Center will be next—and it certainly does look promising.

At any rate, lovely Mrs. Betty Evans of the Claremont presented last month's check to a most interesting lady—Mrs. J. W. Macmeehen who is the president of the Berkeley Community YWCA.

Fashions shown are always from the "Sather Gate Shop" and the models are always professionals (beauties, too!) with one exception. Each week one model is selected from the honored organization and last week Emerald (Mrs. Charles) Smith was the "number one girl" and did a very fine job of it too.

So, you think you are busy

Was floored to hear what a busy one she is. Besides raising a family and running a home, Emerald is a practicing attorney and connected with ever so many worth while organizations, including the Center, of course!

Then there were some guest whom I can't resist describing. Marie (Mrs. Odie) Monahan of Orinda, seemed to have stepped from a "Gibson Girl" painting in a full-skirted, full-sleeved white lawn frock with a perky toque atop her pompador-type couffieur.

Her costume was lightly accented with pink. A stunning two-some —Azella (Mrs. Ridgeway) Woodburn and Betty (Mrs. W. W.) White. Dark, and handsome Azela wore a navy fitted outfit to set off a tremendous large natural straw, the brim circled with many shaded roses.

Blonde, fragile Betty chose a slim beige sheath, matching accessories, brown furs and a cunning circlet of jeweled straw which surrounded her high chignon.

There was that Swansonish look

Then there was petite Mimi (Mrs Hugh) Gordon in a saucy navy sailor dress with bright red trim. These last three hail from the Danville area.

Looking kind of "Gloria Swanson-ish" was deeply tanned Beverly (Mrs. Norman) Watson in a robin's egg blue sharkskin suit with stark white cloche and accessories.

Eileen (Mrs. W. C.) McLaren was equally stunning wearing a grey and white pin-stripe "blouson" dress with, again, white touches. Only one word fits the beautious Virginia (Mrs. Robert) Franklin—GLAMOUROUS! She wore a svelte, creamy brocade and atop her shining, extremely fashioned hair-do was the largest hat I've seen in years. The entire brim a fluff of brown, shaded feathers.

There's the bridge group to . . .

At one table was a group of friends who have gathered on the first Wednesday of the month to lunch and play bridge for years. For this occassion they gathered at the home of Mrs. Edward Wanous and then came on to the Claremont where they lunched and then enjoyed their usual bridge in one of the small rooms.

Others in the group—the Mmes. Rupert Lewis, William McGuire, Armand Werle, Frank Lord, William Phelan and Farris Fain.

But, there are other things

And now—to other things. Peggy and Don John of Walnut Creek have had as their guest for several weeks, Peggy's mother, Mrs. J. J. Padden from Minneapolis. Friday, the three of them motored down to Springville, where they visited with the Earl Kinyons on their beautiful ranch. Maureen Kinyon, also is Mrs. Padden's daughter.

Again the lovely Ted Schroder home in Walnut Creek was the setting for a large afternoon party. The Flicker's annual "Dutch Auction" was held there a week ago— it's theme, "Springtime in the Netherlands."

Mother Nature really cooperated—for the day was made to order—sunny and warm. The gay, colorful cottons which bossomed forth were only equaled by the gorgeous flowers which encircled the lawns.

A generous luncheon was served preceding the spirited bidding —the auction being presided over by Bob Schroder and Lloyd Lekse. Other husbands who assisted with serving and took an active part in the bidding were John Hallgren and Bob Fugazi by a group of friends—they were LUCKY, too, Many lovely items with Harry Hemstalk arriving later in the afternoon accompanied were offered; bowls, vases, towels, cufflinks, handbags, crystal and also such practical goodies as hams.

Mrs. Lou Very and Mrs. Ted Schroder mother's of members, were generous bidders as was Mrs. Richard Olson who, with her family, has just moved in to a brand new home on Walnut Blvd.

Connie (Mrs. Leo) Kieny looked her usual smart self in a gold and brown print and "Muggs" (Mrs. Harold) Vincent was sporting a becoming new chignon hair-do.

Mrs. Richard Bartle of Orinda was there — wearing a stunning sun dress, as were most of the gals. Shirley Soares was the busy onefor she was the event's chairman.

Three children calls for shower

It was a surprise baby shower for Mrs. Carl Marino last Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Werner Petersen. Joyce is expecting her third child. The Marinos have two boys and, of course, are hoping for a pink bundle. The party got off to a hilarious start for Joyce arrived expecting to spend a very quiet evening with Gloria, their husbands being out of town together. Imagine her astonisment upon seeing her friends, neighbors and very charming mother, Mrs. Margaret Sutherland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Askham were seen Sunday driving about in their bright and shining 1907 Maxwell on their way to the "Pleasanton Horseless Carriage Meet"—this one labeled "The Shake Down."

The procession started from Irvington and followed over hill and dale to see who would make it first to Pleasanton, if at all. Following an exciting day they all settled down for a big barbecue.

HEIDI HO—Heidi Chapter of the Children's Home Society will have a benefit party Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Stubblefield, Glen Road, Lafayette. Motif of the affair, as shown by the costumes of Mrs. Stubblefield, left, and Mrs. Lawrence Hicks, is old-time Western. The party will be in the Stubblefield gardens, with proceeds going to the Children's Home Society.

North Coast Meet Today

The spotlight turns to baseball and track this week.

Diablo and Las Lomas were tied for the top honors as The Sun went to press and while they didn't cross bats until next week it will be with interest that fans watch as both clubs come down the home stretch.

Acalanes has been coming fast the second half, but hardly figures to overcome the leaders after a slow start, but the Dons could upset the applecart by copping an upset win along the way.

The Dons meet Diablo and Las Lomas in order next week—playing them at home—Diablo, Tuesday and Las Lomas, Thursday.

Track enthusiasts will be watching the North Coast Section Meet today and the North Coast Finals May 24 at Fremont High of Sunnyvale.

Here's the schedule for the week:

County Records Topple as Williamson, Latone, Farmer, Pratt, Weill, Run Wild

The Acalanes Dons put on a "come through" performance last Friday afternoon to win the varsity track crown in the Contra Costa Section of the Diablo Valley Athletic League in Antioch.

The Dons swept the mile with Leo MacFarlane, Chuck McQuiddy, and Bill Jencks finishing in that order to insure the Acalanes win when the points were added to the totals garnered in the other 12 events.

DAVE WILLIAMSON hit 13'2" for a new league mark in the pole vault and it was 1-2 for Acalanes when Mike Latone took second.

Mike Wood won the 880 in 2:05 for Acalanes while John Pratt of Pleasant Hill ran in the fine time of :14.9 to cop the 180 yard low hurdles.

Dave Weill of Las Lomas did fine in winning the discus at 135' 5½" while teammate Art Dalbey tied for with Antioch's Rune Engebretsen at 6' 1" in the high jump tieing the record set by Dalbey last year.

HIS RECORD marks came in the 180 yard lows with a time of :19.3 set by Dan Brooks of Mt. Diablo in 1947.

Farmer's other record performance came in the broad jump as he leaped 22' 1".

Bing, Hoagy, Billy, Other Stars to Tee-Off in Orinda

"Stardust" man Hoagy Carmichael, bandleader Phil Harris, swimmer Johnny Weismuller, actors Forest Tucker, Dennis O'Keefe and John Raitt, the Rev. Billy Graham, and Dennis Crosby's father are among celebrities tenatively scheduled to take to the Orinda Country Club fairways Friday, May 23, in the second annual Doten Golf Invitational.

According to the event's publicity chairman, Bud Foster, these "names" and many others have indicated they will appear at the event, proceeds of which go to promote East Bay area high school sports and for the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Foster said, "We've already contacted more celebrities than you can shake a niblick at. They have all given us the word that they'll participate, but of course their committments are subject to last-minute changes by their agents."

Foster promised, however, that gallery viewers of the big event will see a number of "big names" plus a host of topflight local golfers at the May 23 Orinda invitational.

"Tee-off time will be at 8 a.m., with more than 160 celebrities and outstanding amateur golfers from Lafayette, Orinda and Walnut Creek participating," Foster said.

Three representatives of the East Bay Children's Hospital, which will receive a share of money from gallery receipts, are selling tickets to the event.

They are Mrs. Richard David, AT 3-6019, Mrs. Wayne Welcome, YE 5-4531, and Mrs. Donald Ellis, CL 4-5601.

A percentage of the proceeds from the tournament will go to the Doten Sports Institute, sponsored by Bay Area businessmen to stimulate excellence in high school athletics.

Preps Show Outstanding Determination in Meet

by ERWIN MATTSON

Acalanes won the DVAL Contra Costa Section Track meet at Antioch last Friday and it was a remarkable feat in view of several things.

First off, the Dons have had no top flight sprinters all season long and usually to win you have to have one or more point getters in the sprints and relays.

THE WEEK OF the meet one boy fouled up when he was out for disciplinary action—his service meant important points—then Dennis Brady the Acalanes 880 yard runner and top choice to cop the event was out due to measles.

The day of the meet though, many came through with top performances and the issue was decided when the Acalanes team ran 1-2-3 in the mile.

★ ★ ★

It marked the seventh county crown for the Dons and a repeat win as they copped the event for the mythical pennant in 1957.

★ ★ ★

If they picked an outstanding performer at the meet the honors would have gone hands down to Dixon Farmer of Miramonte who is about as smooth a performer as they come.

HE SET RECORDS in the broad jump and the low hurdles and came within a tenth of a second of tieing the mark in the 440. He probably would have broken the mark but a gusty wind that swept the lime lines from the track handicapped runners no end.

To top it all he has acquired a poise on and off the track far beyond his years as a junior in high school. He does well in whatever he undertakes and is aiming for the decathalon as his ultimate goal.

He has high jumped 6 feet and run the 100 in 10 flat.

ONE THING CERTAIN—added age and with it a growth in size and maturity will make him a tough one to beat.

He has put Miramonte on the map athletically and with another year to go he will really be ready for college.

He performed well at the Fresno Relays Saturday and in the opinion of many should have received the outstanding prep award.

★ ★ ★

Pittsburg High copped the county bee title for the sixth year in a row, but ran second in the varsity which rankled them no end.

ONE OF THE GAMEST performances came from Pitt's Vince Darone who took second in the high hurdles after just barely making it in the trials due to a badly sprained ankle.

Looking at his performance at the trials it was felt that he wouldn't make it in the finals. He did it on sheer determination and surprised everyone.

He shot the works in the highs and just couldn't go in the lows.

Darone is one of the best prep football backs here abouts and as a senior next year looms as top college material. He has size and speed and what's most important "intense desire."

You can't help but admire such determination and wish such a kid well.

Diablo Women's Handicap Golf

Meadowbrook Golf Club's first Twilight Tournament of the summer will be held May 16 at the club in Reliez Valley. The men and women's golf communities are cooperating on the event.

The tee-off of mixed best-ball twosomes will be between the hours of 4 and 6 p.m. After nine holes of play a buffet supper will be served to participants. Mesdames Alfred Taylor, Thomas Montague, George Innes, Daniel Tillotson, Samuel Wilson, William Gruenhagen, and Sidney Lapham are directing arrangements for the buffet.

Hardtop Highlights

Franklin Has Second Main At Pacheco

By JEAN McGUIRE

Johnny Franklin took his second main event in a row Saturday night at Contra Costa Speedway, but our local "Hardtop Heroes" vow they'll stop him if possible.

The races were punctuated by the usual number of flips and trips through the fence, but fortunately there were no injuries.

Herb Williams, that "Big Man" from Walnut Creek, had a stroke of bad luck in the final heat when he tangled head on with a car that was coming back on to the track after a spin out.

Dented, but undaunted, the maroon and yellow Dietrich Special will return next week sporting a new radiator and ignition system.

Pleasant Hill pilot, Jack Clayton, was also plagued by mishap. Rear end gear trouble made it impossible for him to repeat his performance of the previous week when he took the first and final heats, and the semi-main event.

Other local speed merchants out to break Franklin's winning streak tomorrow night will include, Cliff Bennett, Chet and Russ Strock, Jack Huddleston, Dick Case, Gary Street and Bill Rasset.

Pleasant Hill's Jack Clayton stole the show at Contra Costa Speedway, winning the 15 lap semi-main, the 10 lap final heat, and coming in an exciting photo finish in the first heat.

Clayton, who has lived most of his life in this area, is no newcomer to racing. Starting out in sprint cars, he changed to his favorite, hardtops, about five years ago.

It looks like Clayton is at last coming into his own, driving the red and white No. 88, owned by Al Abney of Richmond.

Ladies Hold Golf Tourney

The Contra Costa Country Club's ladies group completed the annual championship tournament last Friday. Mrs. Fred Alexanderson won a clock as consolation prize.

Mrs. R. U. Eichner was runner up in fifth flight and Mrs. T. Dowell was winner of fifth flight.

Mrs. J. De Costa was runner up for fourth flight and Mrs. Ace Giboney was winner of fourth flight.

Mrs. George Thomson was runner up for third flight and Mrs. John Clark winner of third flight.

Mrs. G. W. Dygert was runner up for second flight and Mrs. Ott Gardner winner of second flight.

Mrs. Norman Macauley was runner up for championship flight and Mrs. George Nash retained her title of ladies champion.

Mrs. John Lancaster and Mrs. Kermit Coon will play off a tie of 89 for low gross.

Orinda Ladies Day Tournament

Mrs. C. L. Rank and Mrs. C. O. Shafft were low net and second low net winners in the recent Ladies Handicap Tournament at the Orinda Country Club.

Mrs. Rank had a 91-21-70, while Mrs. Shafft held at 100-29-71.

Consolation winner was Mrs. T. C. Carlson, 102-24-78, while Mrs. J. P. Guerin had a 113-35-78.

First flight winner was Mrs. F. F. Fee; first flight runner up was Mrs. C. O. Shafft, and Mrs. D. S. Carter was defeated winner.

In other flights, winners, runners-up and defeated winners were in order:

Second — Mrs. R. D. Graffis, Mrs. Mark Smith, Mrs. E. B. Pave.

Third — Mrs. S. F. Jensen, Mrs. R. C. Diehl, Mrs. Thomas Nickels.

Fourth—Mrs. H. F. MacIntyre, Mrs. King Wilkin, Mrs. G. A. Somers.

Fifth — Mrs. William Carter, Mrs. E. C. Gergen.

Sixth — Mrs. P. L. Rasmussen, Mrs. C. M. Johnson.

Mancour Drops In Hole-in-One

Larry Mancour, golf pro at Meadowbrook Golf Club, dropped in a hole-in-one May 7, sinking the ace on the 190-yard eighth hole. It was the first hole-in-one ever shot on the eighth.

Witnessing the feat were Jim Manfrin, Neal Galvin and Jeanne Thuesen, all of Lafayette.

An open forum will be conducted by foreign exchange students who are living in our community this year under the auspices of the American Field Service.

They include two Acalanes students, Irmgard Sieber from Germany and Carlos Demiguel from Spain; Ernst Van Gelderen from the Netherlands who attends Las Lomas; and Eberhard Umbach from Germany and presently at Miramonte High School.

TUNA

The California tuna fleet this winter extended its range by 900 miles to northern Chile, the farthest it has yet ventured. Skipjack catches of 100 tons per day per boat were reported for the new area. Chile has protested, claiming invasion of its territorial waters.

Diablo Playhouse Plans Version of 'Tender' Trap

The newly formed community theater group, the Diablo Playhouse, is now in rehearsal for the forthcoming production of "The Tender Trap."

The three-act comedy, "The Tender Trap," will be presented as part of the Diablo Art Federation's Pageant of Arts on May 31 and June 7 at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

Director Leon Dinkin said that membership in The Diablo Playhouse is open to all residents of East Contra Costa County interested in community theater work, either from an acting or a technical standpoint.

Dinkin urged anyone interested to contact him at The Diablo Playhouse address at 1430 Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek.

Among the new members are Jerline Hamilton, who will handle properties and make-up in "The Tender Trap," Jean Kuhlman who will be prompter; Ron Council, Sally Menges, and Melissa Johnson.

"The Tender Trap" will be directed by Leon Dinkin. In the cast are Frank Sher, Jack Varner, Phyllis Sher, Ruth Dolgin, Ethel Appel, Eleanor Silverman, Fred Marcus and Dick Corriveau.

After a successful run on Broadway, "The Tender Trap," written by Robert Paul Smith and Max Shulman, was made into a movie. The story tells how bachelor Charlie Reader reacts when he is besieged by the attentions and favors of several beautiful women.

Tickets for this comedy are available from members of the Diablo Playhouse or at the box office on performance nights.

Child Accidents Are Focus of County Project

Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer, announced that Contra Costa County Health Department has been awarded a grant of $20,000 by the California State Health Department Committee on Special Projects.

This award has been received for a one-year demostration project to be focused on reducing the alarmingly high accident rate among children at home.

The project, which may be extended for an additional year, will be under the direction of Assistant County Health Officer W. A. Ketterer, aided by a new health educator and a clerk.

In order to be of greatest benefit to the community, the project has been designed to involve as large a group of the public as possible, through home interviews and home safety checking by community volunteers.

Red Devils Edge Rams; Tie for 1st

It took two extra innings before the Diablo Red Devils could edge the Pleasant Hill Rams in a league baseball game at Pleasant Hill on Thursday, May 8th.

The win kept the Devils in a first place tie with Las Lomas.

Diablo scored in the first inning and two in the second only to have the Rams cross the plate with five big runs in the bottom of the third.

The Rams upset the Devils in the first round of play and looked as if they were about to repeat at this point.

The Rams hit six in the third after there were two down off chucker Lee Grichuhin with 10 batters going to the plate. Runs came when Ray Dameral doubled, Dennis Jordan and Dave Bartels singled, then Don Rose tripled and Diablo booted one, a fielder's choice came in, then Bill Locatelli and Tom Larscheid singled, followed by a hit batter, Jim Mapes.

Ron Lichti, Diablo's big right hander relieved at this point and proceeded to put out the five.

The Rams got another run in the 4th when Lichti gave up the game's only base on balls. A passed ball put the walked batter, Jordan, to second; he advanced on a fielder's choice and came home on an error.

Diablo added two runs in the sixth when Dan Barney, Paul Chaplik and Ron Lichti singled and the Rams contributed an error to the Devils cause.

The Devils made it six, all in the 7th when Jim Ligget singled, Ghichuhin sacrificed bunted and went to third when Bud Peebles got an infield hit. The run came when the Rams committed an error.

The game was thrown into overtime play with the end coming in the 9th as the Devils Billy Stone beat out an infield single, stole second, and tagged up at third in a wild pitch. Jim Liggett hit to right for a double to decide the ball game as Liggett scored.

Diablo wound up with 14 hits to 7 for the Rams.

Batteries: Pleasant Hill, Locatelli, Barham (4) Larscheid (9) and Adams. Diablo, Grichuhin, Lichti and Barney.

Pounding out 16 hits and 13 runs, the Diablo Red devils showed power and finesse as they racked up the Pittsburg Pirates who could gather but three runs on six hits. The twin kept Diablo tied with Las Lomas for the top.

The game, played last Tuesday at Pittsburg, found Diablo's Treadway going the route on the mound with Piscovich catcing until the 7th when Barney took over.

Pitt used Roa, Castro in the second, and Lindy in the 5th, with Barraco receiving.

Pirates Ransack Miramonte Nine

The Pittsburg Pirates playing at Miramonte May 8, had things pretty well in hand as Mark Roa and Bob Escovide held the Matadors to three hits and three runs while they collected 11 runs on 13 safeties.

Gary Lucas and Frank Feldman did the hurling for Miramonte. Big blow was a two-run homer off the bat of Pitt shortstop Frank Gardinelli in the fourth.

Tony Banaco got four for four for Pitt, all singles.

Lucas, Rob Anthonisen and Randy Young accounted for Miramonte hits.

Letter Winner

Louis Mancini of Lafayette was one of 12 Gael team members who were awarded swimming letters recently by Coach Ron Noakes, Pleasant Hill, St. Mary's College athletic staff.

Golfing Gaels Dumped by COP

The Golfing Gaels from Saint Mary's dropped their final match of the season to College of Pacifica Tuesday by a score of 17-10.

Medalist for Saint Mary's was Heaton with a 73 on a par 72 for Swenson Park Municipal Links.

Heaton took John Silvera, who shot a 70, two under, 2½ to ½. Tom O'Neil of St. Mary's bowed to Bruce McClean, after shooting a 79, 2½ to ½.

Bill Celli of the Gaels took Brugess Windsor of COP 3-0.

Frank Casas took Bob O'Neil 3-0. Celli and Bob O'Neil took Windsor and Casas 3-0 in team play.

The Gaels tour to Los Angeles this weekend to play off for the West Coast Athletic Conference Tourney.

Knights Edge Pacifica 3-0

The Las Lomas Knights posted a 3-0 win over Pacifica when they hit the clutch and made good use of the pitching of Don Hopkins and Clark Ransome.

The Knights' first run came in the fourth when Ransome singled, took third on an error and went home on a passed ball.

The other runs crossed the plate in the 6th when Larry Drummond and Jeff Beaubien singled and advanced on a passed ball to second and third. Drummond scored on a fielders' choice and Beaubien rambled home when Roger Cowell got an infield hit.

First baseman Eric Nankwell accounted for the nKights' other blow, a single.

Pacifica wound up with two hits, singles by Bill Brady and Jerry Hamilton.

Hopkins pitched 6 innings out of 12 while Ransome struck out 1 in the 7th.

Southpaw Al Burton went the route for Pacifica with Brady behind the plate. Dick Dodge did the receiving for Las Lomas.

Acalanes Scores 2; 'Nuff to Win

The Acalanes Dons scored two runs in the opening frame at Antioch May 8, and then hung on for the win as Mike Kritscher threw a four-hit shutout ball.

The Don runs came when leadoff batter, senocd baseman Don Nelson, was safe when the Antioch first baseman dropped a high fly ball.

It proved to be trouble when Nelson went to second on a passed ball and on to third when shortstop Gary Hansen singled.

First baseman George Mean flied out to left but Nelson tagged up and scored. Catcher Dave Bojarsky hit a single past third to score Hansen. That made it 2-0 and it was the ball game as neither nine scored the rest of the way, in fact only two Antioch players reached second and only one got to third as Kritscher kept things well in hand while striking out six.

Art Regoli on the mound for Antioch turned in a good performance of his own, giving up but six hits and striking out 7.

Kritscher yielded one walk with Regoli giving up three.

Knights Post 5-1 Victory Over Matadors

Each club got five hits and collected a pair of errors, but in the scoring column the Las Lomas Knights posted a 5-1 win over the Miramonte Matadors.

Las Lomas collected a run in the second inning when short stop Jim Roberts hit a triple and scored when catcher Dick Dodge laid down a squeeze bunt.

The Knights added two more in the third when centerfielder Roger Colwell drew a base on balls. Second baseman Larry Drummond sacrificed him to second and he went onto third when Miramonte made a wild throw.

Jeff Beaubien was out but Drummond scored. Rightfielder Clark Ransome then poled onto left center to clear the bank for a home run.

Miramonte got into score column in the bottom of the third when Bob Welch drew a base on balls and Dick Clark bunted him to second—the tally coming when Randy Young singled through center.

Las Lomas came back with a run in the 5th when Bob Morris drew a base on balls and rolled to third on Larry Drummond's double.

Jeff Beaubien followed with a fly to center with Morris tagging up and going home for the run.

The game's final run came about in the top of the 7th when the two down Colwell tripled and Bob Gomes in a hinch-hitting role doubled to score Colwell.

Miramonte's third baseman, Gordon Hightwore was the top sticker as he was the only one with more than one safe blow as he posted a nifty 3 for 3 — all blows singles.

Miramonte did load the bases in the bottom of the seventh but Don Hopkins came in to relieve and "put out the fire" before any damage was done.

Shut-Out Hurled Against Sparta By Don Southpaw

Junior southpaw Mike Kritcher was in top form Tuesday and he tossed a no-hit, no-run game at Pacifica to chalk up a close but convincing 2-0 win.

Kritscher struck out 11 and gave up but three walks. He threw to but 22 batters over the 7 innings route as catcher Dave Bojarsky threw out two men on attempted steals.

The Dons scored a run in the 3rd when left fielder Don Lippert was on, via Jerry Hamilton's error at shortstop when he overthrew first, putting Lippert on second.

Lou Pejovich walked and second baseman Don Nelsen singled to score Lippert standing up.

The second run came in the 6th when first baseman George McMeans singled and scored when Lou Cosso doubled to right after Dave Bojarsky had bunted him to second.

With two down in the 7th, Kritcher walked second baseman Ron Petri and then with a one and one count, Al Burton hit one on the ground over second that looked to be a hit—only to have Nelsen cross over, stab the ball behind second, and toss to shortstop Gary Hansen for the final out in a force at second.

Batteries — Acalanes, Kritcher and Bojarsky; Pacifica, Burton and Brady.

LOOK MOM! Blue Ribbon Days Are Packed with REAL BARGAINS

A truly unusual merchandising event, Lafayette Blue Ribbon Days, is now underway and will continue through Saturday, according to Mrs. W. B. Worswick, chairman of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce Merchants division.

"This is not a sale to clear unwanted merchandise," Mrs. Worswick stated.

"Our committee has set high standards for all participating merchants and all featured items are to be at least 20 per cent off regular price," she continued.

"From the look of things," Mrs. Worswick exclaimed, "Blue Ribbon Days are going to constitute a real buyer's market. Participating merchants have large stocks and enough items to last through Saturday."

ALL THE STORES participating in Blue Ribon Days will be "shopped" by special teams to insure that all stores are complying withthe rules set up by the committee, she explained.

Mrs. Worswick reminded residents to look for the Blue Ribbon signs, cards and Lapel pieces at stores of participating merchants.

Lafayette Has Own Bike Shop

Lafayette now has it's own bike headquarters.

The Lafayette Bike and Repair at 3681 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Schwinn Bicycle distributors for this area, has been opened by L. M. Starr who has lived in Lafayette for the past nine years.

In addition to bike sales and repair this well equipped shop will offer many other services,

Look to Blue Ribbon Signs For Real Bargains

Food stores in Lafayette are helping promote Lafayette Blue Ribbon Days, by inserting some 28,000 reminders of the bargain-packed event in grocery bags.

All participating merchants in this major merchandising event will display window signs and counter cards. Store personnel will wear Blue Ribbon Days label pieces.

"Over a score of merchants have planned to make the Blue Ribbon Days celebration the most bargain - filled event ever held in Lafayette," Mrs. Warswick, chairman, stated.

LAFAYETTE Blue Ribbon DAYS

'Lafayette Has Everything,' Sutton Says in Inviting Public to Event

"Lafayette is just like one huge department store," Orvall Sutton, member of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce Merchants Committee, said today.

"With the many specialty shops in Lafayette, the buyer may obtain his every need, at a sensible price," Sutton explained.

"For example, take our Blue Ribbon Days which begin today and will continue through Saturday," Sutton pointed out.

"Blue Ribbon days are indicative of the high quality, branded merchandise which may be purchased in Lafayette.

"The Blue Ribbon event is not a close out sale. Featured items advertised by participating stores must be 20 per cent off regular selling price.

"We merchants in Lafayette have worked a long time building up our businesses and most of us live right here. Since we are in most cases, neighbors of our customers wer guarantee our services and our products." Sutton continued.

Sutton invited residents to come to town anytime during the Blue Ribbon Days celebration and take advantage of the many "real bargains" which are being offered.

Soroptimist Set To Sport Blue Ribbon Day Pins

Members of the Lafayette-Orinda Soroptimist Club are participating in Lafayette Blue Ribbon Days which will continue through Saturday, according to Mrs. Leah Blodgett, president.

"Soroptimist International is a service organization and takes part in events which concern the community," Mrs. Blodgett noted.

"We in Soroptimist International, feel that the Blue Ribbon Days are of outstanding importance to the community, so to remind residents, we will all wear Blue Ribbon Days label pieces during the entire event," she noted.

'Plenty of Parking in Lafayette'

There's not a parking problem in the world in Lafayette, Marvin Turner, Lafayette Chamber of Commerce Merchants Committee member, stated in inviting residents to Lafayette Blue Ribbon Days, which continues through Saturday.

Turner pointed out there are many off-street parking lots, as well as free curb parking areas.

"Now that the freeway has bypassed Lafayette, traffic circulation in Lafayette is excellent," Turner noted.

"Almost every store is within short walking distance of a parking lot or located in an area served by curbside parking," Turner added.

"One of the best features about shopping in Lafayette," Turner stated, "is you can park just about anywhere and there are no parking meters to worry about."

Broadway Shopping Center Walnut Creek

Open Thursday & Friday Nights

Broadway Is Now Open Thursdays & Friday Nites

To provide more service to the public, stores in the Broadway Shopping Center are now open Thursday nights in addition to Friday nights.

George Webster, Broadway Merchants Association chairman, said that most stores will stay open each Thursday, as well as Friday, to accommodate those families who like to do their shopping in the evening.

Webster said, "We hope that this will afford the shoppers more opportunity to visit Broadway in family groups and not feel that they are rushed for time.

"Service has always been our first thought," he added.

Come One, Come All, to Broadway's Fun Fair!

The Broadway Fun Fair will bring a wonderful, never-never land of amazing puppets, clowns, monkey, merry-go-round and stage coach rides and all the balloons in the world to the boys and girls.

The Fun Fair has been planned for more than five months by merchants of the Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek.

Children and their parents are invited to visit on any or all days. The "Welcome" mat will be out, said George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

HE ADDED, "This will be the most amazing, stupendous event we have ever sponsored, and we are all excited about it."

The Laurel Junior Branch is selling Polak Brothers Circus tickets in a circus booth in Broadway.

However, all shows and favors at the Fun Fair will be absolutely free!

Thousands of gas-filled balloons will be given away to the kids.

FREE CANDIED popcorn packages will be given away Friday night and Saturday, and free rides will be available on a stage-coach from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday.

Free merry-go-round tickets will be given away.

One of the biggest thrills of the big Fun Fair will be the performances of Peppi, the great circus clown.

And the boys and girls will be fascinated by Willie the Monkey, Roger Cooney and his Hurdy-Gurdy organ and the Hestwood Puppet Show, Sal Blasquesz, committee member said.

THE HESTWOOD puppet show will be presented at 7 and 9 p.m., Friday, and at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Saturday.

Colorful flags and giant balloons will highlight the occasion.

Box Ads Offer Special Prices At Broadway

Note the special values that are featured on this front page of the Broadway Shopping Center edition!

Each box presents an item with at least 20 per cent off regular price, and some of them will be much more, according to George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

A special committee of the Broadway Merchants Association has set this policy, and work with the stores to promote outstanding buys!

BROADWAY Offers Parking For 1,800 Cars

Top Values Are Offered At Fun Fair

Very special values will be offered to all shoppers during the Broadway "Fun Fair" which ends this Saturday, at Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek.

Sal Blasquez, committeeman, said "It will profit everyone to examine carefully the top values which have been arranged during the many months of preparation for the Fun Fair.

"We want people to come not only for the entertainment, but for outstanding values and quality merchandise.

"The merchants tell me that they have unwrapped the very latest in styles, colors and fashions of spring and summer", Blasquez said.

Delicious Favors Offered at Fair

What is more lip-smacking than a candied, pink popcorn brick?

They are tops, say kids who are reminding their parents that Broadway's big Fun Fair continues through Saturday.

George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, said that 2500 popcorn bricks will be given away free Friday night and Saturday.

Merry-Go-Round Is Broadway's Fun Fair Special

Children and a merry-go-round go together, and Broadway's Fun Fair merry-go-round is ready for the thousands of boys and girls who are expected to attend the Broadway Fun Fair.

The merry-go-round is located on the north side of Lucky Store. Tickets 10 cents, and three rides for 25 cents.

Sal Blasquez, committeeman, said, "This is one merry-go-round that won't break down. It will run for the boys and girls every day of the Fun Fair."

Many free tickets will be distributed during the Fun Fair.

Puppet Show Is Broadway Sensation at Fun Fair

The wonderful Hestwood puppets will provide a vaudeville of entertainment for boys and girls Friday night and Saturday in front of the Lucky Store, Broadway Shopping Center, according to Sal Blasquez, committeeman.

This is just one feature of the Broadway Fun Fair, which Broadway merchants are providing.

THE HESTWOOD puppets are known throughout the nation as a group of fascinating little people who both amaze and amuse with their antics.

There will be two shows on Friday—at 7 and 9 p.m., and two more on Saturday—at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

The children will be introduced to Bugs Bunny, who likes to try to walk a tight rope, Jack and Jill, roller skaters, and Gigi, a comedy pianist with a miniature grand piano.

AND THERE IS Sachmo, who plays a trumpet and tap dances, Horace Horse Collar who juggles like mad, and the six Minnie-Mice chorus.

Most scandalous is Lili, the famous singing chicken, who likes to roll her eyes and at the finale of her song, lays a golden egg!

Blasquez said. "These little people may be little, but they sure make a big hit with the boys and girls!"

Gas Balloons Free for Kids

A thousand helium-filled balloons will be given away daily at the Broadway Shopping Center "Fun Fair," Sal Blasquez, committeeman, announced.

The first thousand kids to arrive each day will get the balloons. However, the other boys and girls will also be given regular balloons.

Blasquez said, "Balloons are a part of a Fun Fair, and this is our biggest event so far."

Come See Willie, Roger And Peppi

Have you ever watched a child the first time he or she sees a Hurdy-Gurdy organ, its master playing it and encouraging his lifely monkey?

The reaction is one of delight and amazement, and that will be your child's reaction when you attend the Broadway Fun Fair.

Roger Cooney and his wonderful Hurdy-Gurdy organ will roam the Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek, with Willie, the Monkey, cavorting about, seeking pennies for his master.

Balanced on top of the organ, Willie stirs up excitement and laughter with his amusing antics. He somersaults and truly makes a show of himself!

And not far away on the "midway" of Broadway will be Peppi the Clown, who is a real circus clown.

George Webster, Broadway Merchants Association chairman, said, "Peppi the Clown, Roger and Willie make probably the most interesting collection of circus folks we have ever brought to Broadway."

He added, "They are most amusing even for the grownups. It will be a great show."

Peppi has been a circus favorite for years, Webster added.

He had many unusual musical instruments, a smoking washboard and rhythmical spoons.

County Issues Government Book

An illustrated booklet entitled "Local Government in Contra Costa County" has just been published by the County Board of Supervisors for distribution to all interested residents of the county.

Ivan Goyak, board chairman, said today:

"This compact booklet has been prepared with two objectives in mind. First, we wanted to show the relationship of our county government to other local governmental entities within the county.

"Secondly, we wanted to provide brief and accurate information about local government in the hope that it will stimulate citizen interest and build greater understanding of the scope and complexity of local government. It is our hope that the booklet will be widely circulated and read throughout the county."

The 16-page booklet lists county offices and departments, describes Contra Costa County, and traces its history and economic development. Two pages are devoted to an explanation of the relationship of county, municipal and special district government.

Featured is a chart showing county financial operations during the fiscal year 1956-57. Another chart illustrates the functional organization of county government. The 65 county special districts and the 76 local districts within the county are listed.

The booklet concludes with charts and illustrations showing the impact on county government of the phenomenal growth the county has experienced in the past 18 years.

The booklet is being distributed to libraries and schools within the county and copies may be had without charge at the County Clerk's offices in Martinez and in Richmond.
